Boiler Update

While we had expected to replace only two of our boilers, it turned out that all four boilers needed to be replaced. We are thankful that things are running well again! Thank you to everyone who gave money toward the boiler fund. But because of the unexpected replacement of two additional boilers, we are still $2,000 short in covering the cost. Please consider donating toward that fund.

—With much thanks, Pastor Jeff

MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK

Dave and Cathrin Osterhus
Jakob and Jana

EFCM Austria, working with the Austrian youth

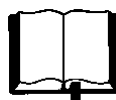

“Thank you so much for your partnership with us in bringing the Gospel back to Austria and mobilizing Austrian youth for Jesus! We greatly appreciate and depend on your prayers and financial support as we keep on the lookout for God in beautiful expectancy! May the Lord bless you greatly!”

Praise God:

- We're all pretty healthy and doing well. Cathrin completed her final immune system therapy in December. There is no more cancer to be found, but she will be watched for the next three years.
- This week we are moving to a village right outside of Innsbruck! We are able to buy an apartment with a yard to play and grill in!
- Our Innsbruck team re-gained a valuable member recently as Tara Sharp reached over 100% of her needed support. She arrived here on the second. Carrie and Tara found an apartment together and are busy recruiting and planning for English Camps 2010, as well as working among the youth and young adults of Innsbruck. We thank God for these two!

Pray For:

- Our monthly “Love Innsbruck” reaches out to a nursing home and to refugee children/youth. Pray for our outreach “Friends Evenings” and for our small group Bible studies.
- Revival in the hearts of our youth, that many would return and gain God's heart for each other and for their lost peers.
- A project we are dreaming and praying about: a Lighthouse Café & Youth Center—the combined visions of Pascal (one of our youth), Dave and others. Please pray that God will give us a facility where His love and hope will shine brightly in this dark city.
- Dave, as he just joined our transitional church leadership team to lend some much-needed support to the three-person team, at least for 2010. Pray for Dave to have clear leading on ministry priorities and find the right people to lead in ministries.
