

The Ugandan Orphans Choir members are some of the neediest children in Uganda. Now, they are the fortunate few who have been rescued from a life of hunger and poverty and given the opportunity for education and spiritual development. These tools help them make a difference in the future of Africa!

The Ugandan Orphans Choir brings a message of hope through the traditional rhythmic dances and songs of Africa. Performances include colorful African costumes and traditional instruments, such as drums and pan pipes, as the children sing and dance tribal songs from all over Africa. They share the message of God's love for all nations.

Childcare Worldwide believes that education is the key to transforming lives. The children in the Ugandan Orphans Choir are provided with the educational tools necessary to break the cycle of poverty from the beginning of their time as choir members through the completion of trade school. Touring with the Ugandan Orphans Choir gives the children a reason to dream big! They are exposed to the opportunities that can be theirs by working hard in further developing their art form and on their education.
